

the where guide

→ Entertainment

Here's Lookin' at You, Cocktail

Trust the skilled mixologists at The Gin Joint (182 E. Bay St., 843-577-6111) to shake up a tasty cocktail like a gin mule or sloe-gin fizz—or play “multiple choice cobbler” and pick your own “poison” from a list of options to mix with seasonal ingredients. Cocktails are prepared with precise attention to detail, so of course there are three different types of ice behind the bar. There’s also an inventive snacks and small plates menu that includes Pad Thai Popcorn (made with lime, plum sugar and fice sauce), stuffed meatballs, roasted octopus salad, a salted chocolate bar (includes peanut butter and Pop Rocks), and a Carolina Apple Crisp with coconut frozen yogurt. We think this is the beginning of a beautiful friendship.