VENUE REVIEW

The Epicurean

1361 Clairmont Rd.
(Powell Ln. & Ladson Ct.)
Decatur
404.321.0530

Forward to Friends

Suit up people, because The Epicurean is a fine dining restaurant where it's impossible to slip in unnoticed. You won't get kicked out for jeans, but odds are you're on a date anyway, so make an effort. White tablecloths, white walls, and sparkling tableware create a semi-formal atmosphere in this well-lit, intimate space. Though the catering company first opened in 1975, the Decatur restaurant is new as of January 10, 2006. Crowds haven't discovered it yet-but they surely will. The big draw is the country French cuisine created by chef/owner Susan Steinberg. The menu changes seasonally, with offerings that range from indulgent (crab balls, $3) to healthy (roasted root vegetables, $4.75). Regional favorites like fresh sea bass en papiote ($17) and roasted quail with cornbread dressing ($13) also make appearances. Finish with chocolate crepes and French press coffee. It's not bitter. After a treat like this, neither is your date.
