

Pub Roundup

Everybody may not know your name, but at these cozy neighborhood pubs you can pull up a stool, and, soon enough, you'll fit right in. —Hope S. Philbrick

BRICK STORE PUB

This TV- and neon-free local treasure specializes in American craft brews and specialty European beers. The 17 draught and 75 bottled beers are expertly selected.

125 E. Court Square, Decatur, 404-687-0990, www.brickstore-pub.com

FADO IRISH PUB

This popular spot serves hearty, classic Irish food and drink in a festive atmosphere, and boasts exclusive satellite coverage of live Irish and European sporting events.

273 Buckhead Ave. NE, 404-841-0066, www.fadoirish-pub.com/atlanta

MARLOW'S TAVERN

While other pubs often mimic those found abroad, this one's heart and soul is 100-percent American.

950 W. Peachtree St., 404-815-0323, www.marlowstavern.com; additional Atlanta locations

RI RA IRISH PUB

Built over two years with historic artifacts, this space is as impressive as its menu, and its vibe is as lively as its service.

1080 Peachtree St. NE, 404-477-1700, www.rira.com/rira/atlanta

ORMSBY'S

This classic neighborhood tavern offers fresh pub fare, a speakeasy feel, a game selection that includes boccie ball, darts, pool and shuffleboard, plus yummy snacks like hot boiled peanuts, Parmesan popcorn and housemade pickles.

1170 Howell Mill Rd., 404-968-2033, www.ormsbysatlanta.com