Tapas are like getting both good and bad news. Upside: Small portions at reasonable prices combine for an opportunity to try many things. Downside: Too easily succumb to menu temptations and you'll easily lose track of how much you're spending. Sabroso Tapas Lounge solves the problem with its "All You Can Eat" special, available every Sunday from 8 to 11 p.m. The special features a selection of six different items from the full menu like a hummus sampler, garlic steamed mussels and cayenne rubbed pork. Offerings vary weekly, but you'll always find a tasty assortment of appetizers, salads, vegetables, seafood and meats for $12 per person. Servers will tempt you to order additional items at full price ($3-$7 each) and a variety of cocktails ($3.50 and up), but stick to the plan for the best value. Other specials are available throughout the week, but Sunday is the best deal.
